President Is Appointed By Quadrangle Books

The New York Times

Herbert Nagourney

Herbert Nagourney was named president yesterday of Quadrangle Books, Inc., a subsidiary of The New York Times Company.

Announcement was made by the board of directors of Quadrangle Books, publishers of educational and non-fiction books, with offices here and in Chicago.

Mr. Nagourney, formerly director of the book division of the Times, is a graduate of Columbia University. Before joining The Times in 1969, he was a vice president of the Macmillan Company and, before that, president of Professional and Technical Programs, Inc. He is 46 years old.
